

Department of Commerce Biography

The U.S. Department of Commerce is much more than the nation's business agency. We provide diverse services and opportunities that better the lives of people everywhere. Our work strengthens America by stimulating the economy and creating jobs. We serve as a scientific research agency, and promote the advancement of science and technology. We improve public health, safety and the environment, promote trade, and help business and industry improve their international competitiveness.

Positions Seeking to Fill

Engineers (Electronic, Electrical, Mechanical, Chemical, Civil and General), Computer Specialists, International Trade Specialists, Economists, Criminal Investigators, Accountants, Statisticians, Math Statisticians, Geographers, Demographers, Cartographers, Meteorologists, Oceanographers, Physicists, Physical Scientists, and Metallurgists.

Required Disciplines: Degrees relevant to the positions listed above.

GPA Required: Prefer GPA of 3.5 or higher on a 4.0 scale, but not required.

Recruiting at all levels.

No interviewing on site.

Co-op/Internships: Offered both during the school year and the summer.

Website Addresses: <http://commerce.gov/jobs.html> and <http://www.commerce.gov>

Number of Positions Available: Varies

Total Number of Employees: 38,000.